The Carnival Begins!

Leo and Mia are so excited—it's Carnival time! Bright costumes, big feathers, and dancers moving to the beat fill the streets. BOOM! BOOM! The drums and speakers blast music all around!

But suddenly, the music gets too loud! Leo and Mia cover their ears, feeling uncomfortable.

Just then, Ollie the Owl swoops in and flaps his wings.

Oh no!
The music is too loud! Let's find a way to enjoy Carnival safely!

Learning About Ear Protection

Ollie opens a magical book, and it glows with golden light!

Leo and Mia watch as the pages flip on their own!

The book shows a simple drawing of an ear and wavy sound lines. Then, it shows earplugs and noise-canceling headphones glowing softly.

Ollie points at the pictures and says:

"Too much loud noise can hurt your ears. But with earplugs or headphones, you can still enjoy the music safely!"

Leo and Mia look at each other—this is cool!

Earplugs to the Rescue!

Leo and Mia put on their colorful earplugs. WOW! The loud music suddenly softens—they can still hear it, but it's not too loud!

They smile and dance with joy!

Nearby, a drummer in a feathered costume plays carnival beats. A DJ in a sparkling outfit wears cool noise-canceling headphones while mixing music.

Now everyone can enjoy Carnival safely!

THE END

Enjoying Carnival Safely!

The Carnival parade moves through the streets! Dancers in big, beautiful feathered costumes twirl and jump to the rhythm.

Leo and Mia dance and laugh, happy that their ears feel good.

One child wears noise-canceling headphones and grooves to the music.

Ollie the Owl winks at them and says:

"Protect your ears today, so you can enjoy music forever!"
